ADMISSION NOTICE

CERTIFICATE COURSE ON DIABETOLOGY (43rd Batch)

Applications are invited from physicians (MBBS or equivalent with BMDC registration) for admission into the 43rd batch of Certificate Course on Diabetology (CCD), Session: January to June-2027. The course was designed by a joint committee of Diabetic Association of Bangladesh (BADAS) and Distance Learning Programmers of Open University of UK for providing standard diabetes care. Students can join the course in Online mode or Offline mode according to their preference. Doctors willing to get admitted into 43rd batch are requested to do online registration for both online and offline modes through the DLP website (www.dlp-badas.org). Selected candidates will subsequently get instruction to complete admission procedure. Students are requested to register early as seats are limited. Offline centers will be conducted in Chattogram, Rajshahi, Khulna, Rangpur, Sylhet and Faridpur together with existing offline centers in Dhaka if sufficient number of students are available. For any query please call DLP office (01718851777). The Course will start on 29th January 2027.
